Instead of Peter's usual letter, here is one from our Diocesan Bishop,

A Letter from the bishop of Chichester

I was recently asked by a reporter whether in the diocese of Chichester Ash Wednesday has become more popular – like Christmas is. My own experience of offering “ashes to go” outside Brighton station was very informative. Generally, people on their way to work were not very interested and sometimes hostile.

People with a bit of Christian formation and experience were more pleased to see us. I sensed that for some of them, this was an invitation to re-connect with the season of Lent and the renewal of their faith. For others, it was encouraging, giving permission for the hidden, private practice of their faith to be affirmed by someone else in public.

The message of Lent is cheering and simple: God loves you and the Church is starting preparations to celebrate that fact at Easter. But this year, in particular, the ashes with which we began this season of Lent offered a serious statement of protest.

As destructive fires raged in Australia, ash was everywhere. Our ashes were an identification with all who are the victim of climate change and environmental damage. But perhaps more importantly, ash was an even clearer symbol of the Christian call to repentance, a radical change of heart.

Extinction protests have certainly become more popular. But we might have more yet to do to make the Lenten discipline of repentance more popular within the Church, in order to become a catalyst for repentance in society and global change. My hope and prayer is that we might emerge from this Lent with a greater sense of reverence for the earth and all its inhabitants. The celebration of Easter will then be marked by a different, freer, lighter way of living, rather than a return to damaging habits we had tried to give up for the time being.

Chapel News

On the 15th March we have a Guest Service led by Revd. Frances Cumberlege and his wife Tina. Many of you I am sure will remember them from his time as Priest in Charge at St. Peter's from 2009 to 2014

I do hope that those of you that remember them will come and support them because they will have made a long journey to be with us and are very much looking forward to seeing you all again.

Please do keep your eye on our web site www.ashburnhamchapel.co.uk as we are always updating it and there is something new every month for you to read.

Note for your Diary – Our next Healing Service is 26th April

My Bible reading this morning included Matthew 22 v 34 – 40 where Jesus says we must love our neighbours as ourselves, and I thought how lucky we are in Ashburnham and Penhurst where there is such a community spirit and where there is genuine love and concern for our neighbours. How many villages nowadays have that love and concern I wonder.

Let us all enjoy that love on the 22nd when we join with St. Peter's in the Village Hall for a Mothering Sunday Breakfast and Service. I look forward to seeing you all there with your families.

Don't forget to alter your clocks before you retire on the 28th otherwise you will be late doing whatever it is you have planned on the 29th!

Advanced Warning

The deadline for the June magazine will be earlier than usual, I will need any submissions by 1st May at the latest (not a week later as usual).

There will be no opportunity for any late additions so, anyone who wants an article or ad in June, please put the earlier date in your diary!

Thanks, Jay

RE-USING EGG BOXES !

Try to buy eggs in cardboard boxes (rather than plastic or polystyrene) because you can recycle the boxes and re-use them in a variety of ways:

- * Break the egg boxes up and add them to your compost as aeration.
- * Playgroups and preschool nurseries often use them for craft projects.
- * They can be used as seed pots and, once the seedlings are ready to be planted out, you can put them straight into the ground as they are biodegradable.
- * Cardboard egg boxes are now accepted in the green Rother recycling bins.

info@penhurst.org.uk

If you've driven or walked past the Retreat Centre in January or February you will have seen the lovely show of snowdrops in the neighbouring churchyard and Granary garden. It is always a stunning sight and now the primroses and daffodils are coming out on the banks above the pond. Spring is a wonderful time of year and there is much beauty here to stop and admire. Why not think about coming to the centre for a Quiet Day when you can just spend enjoying the space inside and out, and either bringing a packed lunch or join other guests for one of Janet's home cooked meals? Give us a call at the office to find a day when you can book in.

Our gardens are beautiful but they take a lot of upkeep and we are seeking some volunteer help in addition to the hours our gardeners Gary and Leo put in each week. If you have a few hours to spare and enjoy gardening and spending time outside, please get in touch with Nicci via the office to find out more.

We look forward to welcoming you to Penhurst this Spring.

Gardening and Nature Notes

This is a short talk I gave at the Plough Sunday service last month.

One of the reasons I love working in the historic gardens at Ashburnham Place is the long legacy of previous gardeners who have worked the land before me. We've heard of some of those who have shaped the landscape there, names such as Lancelot 'Capability' Brown and George Dance the Younger had significant impact on the land I know work on. But what about the others, less well known who also had a hand in shaping the landscape?

We have heard of Brown, but less well known is the name Jonathan Midgley, Brown's steward who oversaw the works on the ground and would have spend a long time onsite supervising the transformation that took place. Over the centuries there must have been hundreds of gardeners working on the estate, most leaving only the legacy of their work, trees and shrubs they planted that still shape our gardens. Sometimes the tools we use link us with the past, when I'm pricking out seedlings I often use a little wooden dibber to make a hole in the soil. My colleagues in the kitchen garden might use a more substantial dibber, I have one in the office made from an old spade or fork handle with the initials FC stamped into it - for Frank Creasey who worked in the gardens under Lady Catherine and John Bickersteth.

I have a trug that belonged to my grandmother that I still use today but it's also precious because of the memories it conjures up of playing in her garden as a child then as an adult, when caring for her, the same garden gave me my first lessons in gardening as I studied horticulture and put what I was learning into practice there. I also have a hoe that belonged to the wife of one of my gardening clients. She had made a beautiful garden over many years and after she died her husband employed me to look after the garden that meant so much to him. I had never met his wife but felt I got to know her as I worked in her garden, often using her tools. Eventually her husband sold the house and on my last visit to the garden gave me her favourite hoe, a delicate one, perfect for weeding around plants in flower beds which I always used in her garden, a precious memory of a fellow gardener who I never met.

Working on the land gives me a sense of history and continuity and I am following in the footsteps of many who have gone before me. Ultimately we are all working alongside our creator God, relying on him for sun and rain, seasons, seedtime and harvest. It is a partnership I cherish.

Plough Sunday

Thank you to everyone who came to support the Plough Sunday service in February, it was an enjoyable celebration of our rural life. The collection raised £240 which will be shared between RABI and FCN.

Ashburnham Church Hall

The Church Hall is situated in the grounds of Ashburnham Place, tucked just inside the wall of the Kitchen Garden. It is used for Sunday school, the Play Cafe, coffee after the Sunday morning service and the occasional Sunday shared lunch.

The building consists of one large room, two smaller rooms, two WCs and a very well equipped kitchen. There is a small garden at the back. Village residents are welcome to use the facilities for children's parties, coffee mornings, teas, committee meetings, etc, and we simply ask for a donation towards the upkeep of the hall.

Clive Mills has taken over as caretaker of the hall, and also keeps the bookings diary. Please contact him if you would like to make a booking, or if you have any other query about the hall. You can telephone on 01424 777011, or email to clive.mills@ymail.com

VILLAGE WALKING GROUP

Join us for a monthly(-ish) ramble around Ashburnham, Penhurst and nearby villages.

We plan to do a mix of weekday, weekend and bank holiday walks, mostly in late mornings or early afternoons, with evening walks in the summer. Most walks will take a couple of hours or so.

Well-behaved dogs on a lead are welcome to join us.

The second walk is on Tuesday 24th March, 2pm-4pm. Starting point to be decided, email Nicky on nickyatstreetcottage@gmail.com for details.

For more info, contact Tina on (01424) 892580 or Nicky on (01424) 892474.

If you can't make it but would like to join us in future, do please let us know which days and times would suit you best.

If you would like to lead a walk later in the year, do let us know.

100 Club

Thank You

A little note to thank all of you who passed on your best wishes when I finally hit 60 in January. My quiet drink in the Ash was anything but. Once I twigged what was happening, with there being another birthday celebration happening on the other side of the bar, I never looked back! It was a great card...I'm going to frame it- it contains the names of a very special group of people who we miss greatly! We will be around to say hello in July although we will not be able to attend the Fair, as we had first hoped, due to a big family gathering on the same day. Take care and have a great spring and summer.

Parish Council News

The Parish Council welcomes Paul Spicer as a parish councillor. Paul was co-opted at the November meeting and has agreed to take the lead on Rights of Way, i.e. footpaths and bridleways. He has already engaged with East Sussex County Council over the collapsed drainage of Honey Lane which is on his doorstep at Slivericks.

As part of setting the budget and precept at the January 2020 council meeting, the Parish Council adopted a planned maintenance scheme to look after our 12 finger posts. Cllr Ron King continues to liaise with a group of people willing to give the sign near them a wash and brush up every year though there are a few still without a pamperer. More serious work will be phased following a survey of all the posts by our regular contractor, Douglas Andrews (Wheelwright).

East Sussex County Council are still willing to contribute 50% of the cost of work on two signs per year so it makes sense to bid for the more expensive work. In 2020 work will be carried out on four posts and another four the following year. This year the most radical work will be on the post at Slivericks (the more southerly one of the two) which is rotten at the base and will be completely replaced. The other major work will be on the sign on the Kitchenham Road which will go back to the workshop for repair. The posts at the top of Old Thatch Lane, Penhurst and in Farthing Lane, Ashburnham will be repainted in situ. The parish website has a map of the fingerposts and the budget for the period April 2020 to March 2021.

The consultation with residents affected by the proposed street name changes is over and the results are in. The proposals, first outlined in the November parish magazine, are:

Tower House Lane becomes Penhurst Lane which now runs from Steven's Crouch to Darwell Hole.

Linghams Lane becomes The Pound. Therefore, the junction we know as The Pound will mark the start of three roads: Church Road (to Ponto Green), Hammer Hill (to Kitchenham Road) and The Pound (to Brownbread Street).

Red Barn becomes Herrings Road which now starts at Ponto Green and runs towards Woods Corner joining Herrings Road Dallington.

There was a majority in favour of the changes and, subject to final agreement of the parish council, the changes will be implemented.

Council meetings are on the last Wednesday of alternate months (next is 25 March) and Planning Committee (if required) meets on the last Wednesday of intervening months.

All meetings are in public and members of the public are encouraged to attend. There is an agenda slot near the start of the meeting for members of the public to address the Council. The agenda is published online at the village web site three clear days before the meeting and hard copy is put on the notice boards at The Chapel and Penhurst Granary. A summary of currently undecided or recently determined planning applications is on the 'Planning' page at the village web site. It contains a link to the Rother DC planning portal if you want to view documents.
