Thought for the Month

Dear Friends,

When the day of Pentecost came.....the disciples saw what seemed to be tongues of fire and came to rest on each of them

In his 1980's book 'Holy Fire' Colin Urquhart talks a lot about the first day of Pentecost when the disciples waited in the upper room for that which Jesus had promised. Fire, after all signifies God's presence with His people. God met with Moses on Mt.Sinai 'which was covered in smoke, because the Lord had descended on it in fire'. Isaiah described the Lord's tongue as a 'consuming fire'. Jesus also warns of the fire of God's judgement. We often can associate fire with hell. Mediaeval artists have had a field day with paintings of fiery torments and inexpressible pain. Obviously the 'fire of hell' is so awful that people must be warned to avoid it at all costs! Jesus once said that 'Anyone who does not remain in me is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up and thrown into the fire' (John 15:6) More importantly, fire also describes the work of the Holy Spirit. The work of God in every Christian. 'Do not put out the Spirit's fire' urges Saint Paul. The Spirit will inspire love and zeal for God's ways and will effect the purging of sin and evil from the heart. John the Baptist prophesied about Jesus: 'He will baptise you with Holy Spirit and fire' - How the Christian soul needs to be 'fired up' with the power of the Holy Spirit. Fire purges, consumes and tests. Becoming a Christian is not the completion of God's purposes for the believer. He wants the fruit of the Spirit manifested in each believer's life. The Christian does not need to live in fear and judgement, but in awe of God, His holiness which has shown us such mercy and love. Living the Christian life the power of the Holy Spirit is the key to life which is lived as the Father wills us. Nothing is really accomplished without the power of the Spirit. Often Christians just go along without even realising that there is a power available from God. 'I've got the power' was a jingle used many years ago when the power companies were privatised. How we need that today-power! Power of the Holy Spirit. The first disciples were hiding in an upper room, and yet the Holy Spirit like a mighty rushing wind blew open the doors and came to them in tongues of fire. Weak men suddenly became strong men; they went out with great courage and spoke without fear about Jesus Christ. Many of the people that first Pentecost were baptised as the disciples preached with confidence. We remember that first Pentecost on May 20th when the liturgical colour is red to remind us of fire. May we seek more and more the power of the Holy Spirit that He may refine us and make us 'on fire' in our belief and in our ability to share this with others.

With my prayers,

Peter

“A date for your diary - our Open Day this year will be on 1st September at the Manor House. As well as the usual delicious food, stalls to browse and friends to catch up with, we are planning to have extra entertainment and fundraising excitement! Our speaker this year will be Bishop Richard, who is our local Bishop and the man who once remarked that this Parish and community is “quite extraordinary” ... clearly he knows some good villages when he sees them! Those of you who have heard him preach or speak at the Men’s Breakfast (and he’s back there next month) will know that he is not to be missed- most engaging! Watch this space for more information and do come and join us on 1st September.

Currently, we are fundraising for the refurbishments taking place at the Manor House, starting in November. As well as complex re-wiring and plumbing work we will be re-configuring the house to incorporate en-suite bathrooms throughout and accessible loos downstairs. The Retreat Centre continues to be popular with visitors from the local area as well as further afield and we hope that the works will help the Centre continue to welcome people for years to come”.

If you are planning to visit anytime here is notice that we will be closed this year for the following dates:

- SUMMER: Saturday 5th May - Sunday 6th May,
Saturday 19th May – Sunday 20th May,

Pastoral Care for Ashburnham

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.” John 14:27

Sometimes we face particular crises in our lives and we may need help. Ashburnham Church seeks to provide such help and support to any who are sick in hospital or at home, recently bereaved, or isolated through a lack of mobility or old age. Please get in touch with any of the people below, who will be happy to have an initial discussion about how we can be of help.

We also welcome requests for prayer. We have two prayer points: one on the notice board at the foot of the steps into the churchyard, and one just inside the church door.

Ron's Ramblings

Those of you paying attention to this column would have noticed that last month's offering was headed 'Duck's Ramblings'. I'm beginning to think that bird is getting above its station and if not careful could end up on a serving dish with an orange inserted where the sun don't shine. Honestly, you allow it to chronicle his/her ( must have a closer look, next time I see it ) migration journey and he/she thinks it's God's gift to travel writing. I wouldn't mind, but people are starting to say it's a better writer than me..... No heckling at the back, please Clive.

A proper writer who is streets ahead of either of us is the journalist Melanie Reid. Writing in the Times magazine the other week, she posed the question 'What if'. In the article she wonders how a person's life could have taken a different path if an alternative decision had been made at that time. The question is particularly apposite for her as she is now sadly tetraplegic after being thrown from her horse. Clearly nobody knows the answer, but you do think to yourself, would I have had a different career / house / partner, if I'd taken that alternative path? I sometimes think, for instance, what if I'd had a budgerigar instead of a hamster as a pet when I was 8 years old? At least I wouldn't have accidentally stood on the budgie, as I did the hamster. It did get me wearing slippers however.

The 'ifs' can come in many forms, ranging from 'Would that brand of quilted, luxury toilet paper have been kinder to my bottom if I'd gone for it, instead of my usual?' Through to 'Could the First World War have been avoided if Gavrilo Princip had been a rubbish shot and missed the Archduke Ferdinand whilst trying to assassinate him?'

The trouble with all this is that you cannot change anything in the past and if you dwell on it too much, therein lies madness. You can only try to change the future. Hopefully for the good.

Sorry, I'm rambling. (Isn't that the whole point of this article? Ed.)

Ronnie King

MI

MI Pushing back the sporting frontiers on ice and snow.

After last month's frozen adventure on ice - aka curling - we set out into the snowy blizzards of Sedlescombe. The morning was a dramatic mix of Man trying to master both the Beast from the East and his golf clubs. As always the quality was variable but the bonhomie was good.

Nick and Clive took the honours with a blistering 43 strokes - Nick repeating his victory of last year.

Robin and Steve took the wooden spoon but deserved special prizes for entertainment.

Nick Heasman then went and cleaned up by winning the Nearest the Hole competition. They'll need to be putting in a new trophy cabinet at Ashburnham Place!

So now we look to cast off our thermals and play some warmer games. Next MI is at the Ash on Tuesday 8 May...8.30 start.

There are now 25 adverts in the parish magazine, and these go a long way to cover the costs of printing – enabling us to distribute free to every home in the village. Jennifer Oldroyd has been responsible for the administration of these – responding to enquiries, helping with advert design and ensuring that payment is made. She would now like to hand over this task, and so we are looking for someone to take it on. Could you be that person? For an initial discussion, and more details of what is involved, call Jennifer on 01323 832748, or email at jennifer.oldroyd@btinternet.com.

Parish Council News

Parish Council news

The Council is pleased to announce that the casual vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Richard Hann has been filled by Neil McConkey, a recently retired GP whom many of you will know. Neil was officially coopted at the March meeting of the Council.

By the time you read this the Annual Parish Meeting will be behind us and the Annual Meeting of the Parish Council will be a few days away on 9 May. This is the meeting at which the council elects its chairman and vice chairman for the next 12 months and conducts other annual statutory duties such as a financial risk assessment, governance review, approval of accounts and confirmation of assets on the assets register.

One of the items of business is to set the dates for council meetings for the next 12 months and the council will look at a proposal to change the dates of meetings from the second Wednesday of alternate months to the last Wednesday. This will more closely align with the copy dates for the parish magazine, such is the power of this venerable journal.

Planning applications

For a summary of currently undecided or recently determined applications do take a look at the 'Planning' page at the village web site. It contains a link to the Rother DC planning portal if you want to view documents.

Dates of next meetings

Annual Meeting of the Parish Council: Wednesday 9 May 2018 at 7.30 pm in the Sports Pavilion.

Planning Committee: Wed 20 June 2018 at 7.30 pm in the Sports Pavilion (but only if there are any new planning matters to consider). Please see the village website (Council Meetings) for up to date information.

All meetings are in public and members of the public are encouraged to attend. There is an agenda slot near the start of the meeting for members of the public to address the Council. The agenda is published online at the village web site three clear days before the meeting and hard copy is put on the notice boards at The Chapel and Penhurst Granary.

New Village Hall

Welcome to a new monthly page of information about the exciting New Village Hall project. We will keep you updated with all the latest news.

We have received £9,566 from Awards For All, The Big Lottery Fund

This will pay for improving the access to the cricket ground which was a condition of planning permission for the New Village Hall

If you were at the Annual Parish Meeting on 26th April you will have seen a wonderful scale model of the new hall, made by Paul Clark. Don't worry if you missed it, the model will pop up at various village events so you can have a look at what the new hall will be like.

We have already sought estimates for the work to the entranceway and hope to get started as soon as we have the necessary agreements from the Ashburnham Estate trustees who own the land.

Lots of work is going on behind the scenes to organise the structure of the groups that will construct and ultimately operate the new hall. The Parish Council will construct the new Village Hall and on completion will grant a long lease of the whole site to a new charity to operate and maintain it. This follows the way the Village Hall Committee runs the existing hall. This new charity will be called the Ashburnham and Penhurst Community Centre - the name agreed at last year's Annual Parish Meeting.

On 17th April, the proposed trustees for this new charity met to apply for registration with the Charity Commission. This group is made up of all the existing members of the Village Hall Committee plus Clive O'Sullivan. At the first Annual General Meeting of this new charity, the trustees will be formally elected.

You can find more information about the new hall on the Parish Website, just click on the link on the homepage www.ashburnham-penhurst.net

Ashburnham and Penhurst had its own super-saturday on 14th April!

The day kicked off with the Out of the Blue Coffee Morning which raised £845 - a fantastic amount, well done to everyone involved.

In the evening, the PANTS cast put on a show in the Village Hall and as well as entertaining their audience, raised £700 towards future pantos!

What a wonderful effort from our little villages! Well done all!
