Prayer and Pastoral Care for our Villages

Revd Gary Cregeen is responsible for the pastoral care of parishioners, and welcomes the opportunity to meet everyone. If you would value a visit, either for a chat, prayer, or Holy Communion at home, please contact him. Ashburnham Church regularly prays for everyone who lives and works in our villages and we are happy to receive requests for prayer at our various services and meetings. There are also "Prayer Boxes" at St Peter's Church in Ashburnham Place, and outside Ashburnham Chapel at Ponds Green where you can write a card (anonymously if you wish) for a specific issue. These will be offered for prayer on a regular basis and dealt with in the strictest confidence. Ashburnham Church is open daily for private prayer too.

'I SHALL NOT BE SHAKEN'

Some time ago I read a book by the mountaineer, Joe Simpson. Touching The Void is a detailed account of a climb he and his climbing partner, Simon Yates, undertook in 1985. They had just reached the top of a 21,000-foot peak in the Andes when disaster struck. Simpson plunged off the vertical face of an ice ledge, breaking his leg. In the hours that followed, darkness fell and a blizzard raged as Yates tried to lower his friend to safety. With much effort and determination they managed to get so far when Joe fell down a crevasse – he hung on the end of a rope for what seemed an eternity. There was no way he could get out and it was almost certain that Simon would also be pulled to an early death as well. Finally, Simon was forced to cut the rope and Joe fell.

The next three days were an impossibly gruelling ordeal for both men. Simon, certain that Joe was dead, returned to base camp consumed with grief and guilt over abandoning him. Miraculously, Joe survived the fall but, crippled, starving, and severely frostbitten, was trapped in a deep crevasse. Summoning vast reserves of physical and spiritual strength, Joe hopped, hobbled, and crawled over the cliffs and canyons of the Andes, reaching the base hours before Simon had planned to break camp – it had taken four days! But he demonstrated great determination and resolve.

This story came to mind when I was reading Psalm 16 recently. This Psalm rings with hope and confidence in God; it exemplifies a deep trust in God in both life and death. The psalmist, though acknowledging past troubles and personal struggles, celebrates the goodness of God that he has experienced in his life. His great determination and resolve are expressed so firmly in five simple but powerful words: 'I shall not be shaken'.

The secret of the psalmist's confidence is his trust in GOD. At the beginning he prays that God will be his keeper and his guardian: "Keep me safe...", but it's a prayer that is based on trust, "...in you I take refuge". The psalmist found his shelter and security in God; he also submitted to God as his Master: "You are my Lord, apart from you I have no good thing".

Now it could be argued the world of the psalmist was very different to our own and conclude that such hope and confidence is 'unrealistic' in our contemporary world. As wars continue, people struggle to make ends meet, many navigate broken and fragile relationships and illness encroaches, the 'feel good factor' expressed by the psalmist can seem like wishful thinking.

However, the psalmist lived in a world that was equally violent, equally uncertain, and equally threatening, as our own. Yet we in the midst of all the pressures of life and the threats he faced he declared, "I have set the Lord always before me. Because the Lord is at my right hand I shall not be shaken". Psalm 16 is a wonderful reminder of the sufficiency and faithfulness of God, who invites us to trust Him and know for ourselves that peace and confidence that He can give.

God bless, Revd Gary

Christmas Shoe Box Appeal 2023 – Good News! Great Joy!

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD sends a message of hope to children in desperate situations around the world through gift-filled shoe boxes. Operation Christmas Child is part of Samaritan's Purse, an international relief and development organisation that seeks to provide help and hope among communities in need across the world (such as countries in Sub-Saharan Africa, Eastern Europe (including Ukraine) and Central Asia).

The annual shoe-box appeal programme provides an opportunity for individuals of all ages to be involved in this simple hands-on project that reaches out to children who might otherwise have very little to look forward to this Christmas. In 2022 10.6 million shoeboxes were donated (including over 252,000 from the UK) to children in over 110 countries!

A leaflet providing information about the project, was included in the September edition of the Parish Magazine; copies are also available in the porch of St Peter's Church, Ashburnham and Penhurst Church.

Those wishing to take part in this year's Appeal are invited to bring your gift-filled shoe box to either Penhurst Church or St Peter's Church, Ashburnham, on SUNDAY 5 NOVEMBER, or deliver it to either of the Churches any time prior to this date. Thank you!

There is also a quiet area in the 'upper room' at St Peter's that is available for parents/carers to take pre-school children out during the service, which has toys, books and colouring materials available.

Parish Council News

At last there is something to celebrate with regard to public transport within the parishes. FlexiBus is a new service to Rother. Its Services run 7am to 7pm, Monday to Saturday (not Sundays or Bank holidays). FlexiBus is a flexible, on-demand rideshare service, for areas with limited or no bus service. Residents can book a FlexiBus journey to their nearest town, train station, hospital and other key destinations.

FlexiBus operates exclusively for places not served by a regular transport service and so you can't book a FlexiBus journey to travel along an existing public transport route. The area covered by Flexibus is divided into zones and there is a map online showing the zones. There is an 'Address' search box so that you can find out which zone an address is in.

However, you don't need to be a techie to make a booking although there is an app (Ride Pingo). A telephone is all you need. Recent experience of a guest at Penhurst Retreat was glowing in its praise of the service they received by telephoning 01273 078203 where an agent will sort everything out for you to book your planned journey.

Autumn is upon us and the next date to save is the annual remembrance service at the war memorial on Sunday 12th November 2023.

This Autumn why not come to the retreat centre for the day on Wednesday 11 October and join Vicki Cottingham as she leads a Prayer Shawl Workshop. You will be crocheting or knitting a prayer shawl as a gift, praying for the recipient and enjoying creative time with the rest of the group. The day runs from 10am - 4pm and costs £40 including a home cooked lunch and refreshments throughout the day.

Looking further ahead, David Cole is coming back to Penhurst to lead one of his popular Celtic Advent weekends from Friday 1 - Sunday 3 December. Take a few days at the start of Advent to step aside from all the busyness of the season and find out more about the ancient traditions of advent and how they can enrich our lives today.

To find out more about these and our other retreats and quiet days, go to our website. We are also active on Facebook and Instagram so seek us out and follow us!

Murmurations – Donna Christman

Last month, after writing about the myriad of health benefits of grounding due to the exchange of electrons between our bodies and the earth - largely lost to us humans since the introduction of synthetic soles - I came across this by Andrea Gibson: “The leaves are all falling, and they’re falling like they’re falling in love with the ground.” Nice...

As I write in balmy September, our apples have also been falling to the ground like they’re in love with it – gently nudged, but also forcefully wacked, with long implements... protective head-wear necessary. Black buckets. (Apparently a local lady once lost a front tooth in a falling apple incident.)

Anyway the Pressing Place beckons apples large and small, ready or not. Those to escape the juicer fell in love with the ground some weeks ago and are now being squabbled over by wasps. Or the two large goats that came for a short (but mischievous) stay. They’re also loving the blackberries and, standing up on their back legs, have an impressive reach. Clever too. I can pop a trug on a curly horn, give them flour, sugar and butter - and the oven settings for a crumble.

Anyway, our apple-bashing day proves to be risky business for the sack-holders and picker-uppers who suffer injuries due to lack of protective equipment. The apples were the least problem; it was the bucket-wearing stick-brandishers that proved the most dangerous with their erratic swinging and misguided pommelling. Me, I got a sack, not a bucket-helmet, so had to be as nimble as a netballer, dodging left and right to avoid the attacking team, and charging down the sloped pitch after stock that got away.

Throughout our apple gathering party (at which there were no chilled ciders, Sauvignon Blancs or caterers on account of the extent of the orchard - six trees) sacks were filled and humped, barrows wheeled and dragged and produce loaded into a sturdy vehicle. As the sun drowsily slumped on the horizon, the cheery people at Ringden Farm were washing their feet, linking arms and treading the sweet and sour juice out of our Pippins and Bramleys ... heartily singing Oats and Beans and Barley Grow.

The unfortunate lady who lost her tooth in the freak apple- harvesting incident ended up, I gather, paying a small fortune for a crown replacement. Life’s a learning game!

”Howev’r joyous thee may bee, nev’r grineth und’r an apple

Garden and Nature Notes

I was looking back over some photographs when I was thinking about this column, and marvelling at the range of wildlife we have seen in the garden recently - a gorgeous grass snake swimming across the pond; a teenage Tawny Owl finding its voice in the Oak tree just behind the house; a Silver Washed Fritillary Butterfly landing on Water Mint and a Heron visiting regularly to stalk fish in the ponds.

I try and keep lists of the insects, animals and birds that we see at home and have recently started to upload records to iRecord (www.irecord.org.uk) which describes its aims as follows,
“The goal of iRecord is to make it easier for wildlife sightings to be collated, checked by experts and made available to support research and decision-making at local and national levels. Join iRecord now to share your sightings with the recording community, explore dynamic maps and graphs of your data and make a real contribution to science and conservation.”

It's a great resource, experts check your findings if you're able to include photos and you can easily look back over your own records and those of others posted in this area.

I was treated to an unexpected sight recently, about 20 White Storks circling high in the sky above Ashburnham Place. One of my colleagues there, a keen birder, spotted them and pointed them out, even high up you could see how large they were and different to anything else in the sky. There is a fairly new breeding population at Knepp in West Sussex where they have been re-introduced but there are also migratory groups this time of year.

In the garden seed heads are taking over from flowers and I have been collecting Corncockle, Love in a Mist, Marigold and Cornflowers to grow again next year. I am also planning to gather some tree seeds, including from Wild Service Trees (Sorbus terminals) in Ashburnham Place. These trees, which used to be commonplace in our woodlands are becoming increasingly rare so it will be good to try and grow some seedlings. Growing trees takes patience, most seeds need a period of cold to kickstart germination so need to be left outside in pots over winter, some for more than one season! You can circumvent this by freezing the seeds but it can be tricky to get the timings right. It will be worth doing though to raise a new generation of trees to plant out here.

Chapel News for October

Don't forget the Healing Service on the 8th October! Led by Prof. Barbara Leppard, Barbara's details are on our website; www.ashburnhamchapel.co.uk She has written an amazing book in which she tells about the miraculous things God has done through her in the last 40 years. I have asked her to bring some copies with her on the 8th and they are £10 ea. If you are uncertain whether Our Lord still heals today, proof is in her book.

My brother has also benefitted from Our Lord's healing in recent months. He has gone from being unable to speak or move by himself to being able to speak normally, walk with the aid of a 'Walker' and feed himself. Barbara and myself sat by his bedside at the end of May and prayed for him, Barbara also anointed him and since that day we have seen Roger gradually improve. Our Lord heard our prayers and answered them!

The Chapel have had a wonderful time of Worship and Fellowship over the Summer months. It has been such a pleasure to welcome so many people to our Services each week both in person and on Zoom. I suspect that as the nights draw in, our Congregation will be more on Zoom and fewer in person. Zoom really was such a wonderful discovery and keeps us all in touch with each other every week. If you haven't tried it yet just click on this link around 6-20 pm one Sunday evening and enjoy a Service from the comfort of your own home:-

We are so blessed to live in such a wonderful Christian area. When I watch the News on T.V and hear of all the terrible things that are going on in the world, floods, fires, famines, people being tortured and killed it makes me realise how God watches over us and keeps us safe. He guides us by His Holy Spirit to look out for each other. Many of us probably don't realise just how active God is in Ashburnham, Penhurst and the surrounding areas but if we sit and think about it for a while we can see His influence everywhere we look!

By the time you read this we will have joined together to celebrate with a Harvest Supper and Harvest Thanksgiving Services in all of our 3 Churches, many people will have been blessed by food given to the food bank and money given to RABI and people suffering from the devastating earthquakes in Turkey and Syria earlier this year. ACT will have hosted a barbeque for people from Ukraine living locally and many of us will be busy filling Shoe Boxes to send to children who would otherwise have very little to look forward to this Christmas. Well done all of you!!!

I pray that God will Bless you as your read this.

Ron's Ramblings

Ok. Enough of the ruminating. Just thought. If you take just one letter from that word you have ruination. So it's time for some action and making plans. Time to cut the 'wild flower' lawn, which to be honest, only contained clover flowers, and tidy up the garden. Plan the various things that need doing inside the house over the coming winter.

The first thing is already done. We've bought a new bed. I made a mistake in taking Mrs K. to a hotel in the holidays that had a 'Super King' size bed. So it's goodbye Grandad Davies marital bed (circa 1914) and only 4'6" wide. And in its place is a six foot wide behemoth. With drawers under, would you believe ? It's like sleeping either side of the top floor of a multistory car park. If you get up in the middle of the night for a comfort break you need a satnav to find your way back, but I suppose I'll get used to it.

We also have a 1930s two seater settee which I love and was recovered about twenty years ago in a fabric which my children describe as 'Edwardian Waistcoat'. I'm being hassled to get it refurbished mainly because if any visitor of a certain age or of a rotund nature sits in it it's a devils own job to get them back out again. I could have one of those spring loaded seats fitted I suppose. My late mother in law had one such armchair but had to be careful getting up as she only weighed about 6 stone. It's a wonder she wasn't launched through her french windows at times.

Are you a list person ? I've been telling everyone for years that my lists are in my head but unfortunately they keep getting lost for some unknown reason. So from now on it's pieces of paper with actual writing on them. They'll still get lost. You do get a great deal of satisfaction however in crossing through the tasks completed so I must be happy with that. Get your pleasures where you can.

Ronnie King.
